OWENSBORO

After Fifty Years of Open Saloons. As is Owensboro, So is Mt. Sterling in a Lesser Degree.

The city of Owensboro is overwhelmingly in debt, and the tax rate is now as high as it can be made. Because of a bankrupt treasury no accounts have been paid since December 1, save for salaries, pauper expenses and feed for the city's livestock. All other creditors have been put off from month to month with no promise of payment before another year's taxes are due. At the present time every sinking fund has been robbed of its last cent to meet current obligations, and yet there is an accumulated floating debt of $36,000. Before the next year's taxes are due or collected to any extent, this will have grown to $50,000 or more.

Now, here is a town which has had saloons for more than fifty years in full blast, and at the end of this period one of the friends and advocates of the saloons as a paying business enterprise admits that the city is "BANKRUPT."

Lost Islands.

"St. Louis has lost three islands, though the names are as well remembered now as when the islands themselves were actually in existence. One is Bloody Island, just opposite the city. The old timers used to go there to fight their duels, and in those days the river channel ran on the Illinois side of the island, and except in high water there was only a slough between St. Louis and the dueling ground. The Government and railroad works put Bloody Island on the Illinois side, and now a good part of East St. Louis is built over the sand bar that was once a thicket of willows.

"Arsenal Island, too, used to be on this side of the river, and boys rolled up their trousers and waded across the narrow slough from a point a little south of the work-house. The boats went on the other side of the island, but the channel began cutting into the Illinois farms at such a rate that the Government threw up a dike just across from the arsenal, turned the river to this side, the island was joined to the Illinois shore, was finally purchased by the State of Illinois from the city of St. Louis, and the former bed of the river is now covered by farms.

"Duncan's Island was a big sand bar that began near the foot of Lami street and extended north to Geyer avenue. It was purchased by the Iron Mountain Railroad Company, which wanted to locate its yards in that neighborhood, and filled up the site with earth from Picot's hill, in Carondelet. The names still live, for the people of East St. Louis make a difference between the 'island' and the mainland, just as the farmers in the bottom still talk about Arsenal Island, and the switchmen in the yards south of Chouteau avenue tell one another that a certain car is down on Duncan's Island."—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Where Sentiment Clings.

"There is a lot of sentiment in New York," said a renting agent. "Some of our tenants find it in chunks, and then they come and tell us about it. It is usually centered in some room in a boarding or furnished room house on our list. You wouldn't think there would be much romance attached to a place of that kind, yet that is where the sentiment of spirit most frequently manifests itself. Some people, mostly women, of course, come back year after year and ask to be allowed to see certain rooms in certain houses. Great events in their lives apparently took place there. Maybe somebody was born there, maybe somebody died, or it might have been some other tragedy or some other joy. Anyhow, to those persons those particular rooms are hallowed spots, and on certain dates, anniversaries, probably, they make a pilgrimage there. Sometimes the tenant, if a newcomer, suspects thieves and refuses permission to enter, but as a rule the most stony-hearted yields to the spirit of romance, and the visitor is allowed to weep and mourn to her heart's content."—New York Press.

HEARST'S PLANK.

He is For the Initiative and Referendum.

Assumption That He is Not a Democrat May Be Quite True.

Former Mayor James K. McGuire, of Syracuse, N. Y., recently declared that he could not support W. R. Hearst any longer, because Mr. Hearst is not a Democrat, but that he is for Mr. Bryan, strong, because Mr. Bryan is for the initiative and referendum. In reply Mr. Hearst says in part:

"I am not a candidate for any office whatever, so there would be no opportunity, for Mayor McGuire to favor me with his valued support, even if he were in complete agreement with my principles and purposes. Then again, Mayor McGuire may be quite right in his assumption that I am not a Democrat. I am a firm believer in the principles which Jefferson enunciated, the principles which Lincoln revived, interpreted and exemplified.

"In conclusion, let me say that in my opinion there is no question about the value of the initiative and referendum, and let me add, I have advocated the same measures for many years."

Largest Business Men Don't Drink.

The editor of The Ladies Home Journal, Mr. Box, recently made an investigation with a view to ascertaining, if possible, the proportion of the leading business men of the nation who are addicted to the use of liquors. Twenty-eight of the largest business men of the country were taken for the purpose of investigation and the results show twenty-two out of the twenty-eight, or more than five-sevenths, have never used alcoholic liquors in any way shape or form.

Drink Hurts Business.

Hon. Lief Jones, the well known member of Parliament, and President of the United Kingdom Alliance, says:

"I recently met the finished article of the liquor trade. He was lying in the gutter. He had no hat; the hat trade was suffering. His coat was full of holes; the tailoring trade was suffering. He had no shirt; the shirt trade was suffering. He was dirty; the soap trade was suffering. Indeed, I can hardly mention an industry which was not affected by that man's insobriety."

Coincident with the report that John W. Gates and his son, Charles G. Gates, will withdraw from active participation in the stock market comes the report that the firm was recently heavily involved and that the losses of father and son in the last year aggregated $40,000,000.

In the Circuit Court at Lexington Judge Watts Parker granted the application for bail of Bill Britton, of Breathitt county, charged with the assassination of James Cockrill, fixing the amount at $7,500.

THAT THEY MAY BE ONE.

In another column is the official record of the union of the two Presbyterian churches of this city. To this we call attention of our readers. We regret the removal from our city of either or both of the pastors, who have labored for the uplift of our community. The united congregations, now one, will be drawn closer to each other and animated by one purpose will go forth to accomplish greater things for the Christ. We congratulate the officiating and laymen for their cheerful decision to be one, and wish that their fondest hopes with most devoted and loyal service for the Christ will be fully realized, and that their action will be an incentive to other believers to do likewise.

We are reminded of the loving words of the Christ, when, realizing that his hour was near, he came to his Father in prayer. John 17th chapter, 1-26. We quote as follows: "Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one as we are. * * Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me and I in thee, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou givest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one, I in them and those in me, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that thou hast sent me."

The prayer of the Christ can and must be answered in the oneness of his followers. The action of the two congregations in this city is a practical fulfillment of his earnest prayer. The union of all believers is possible, desirable, and helpful, because he prayed for it. When his followers are filled and guided by his spirit they will no longer strive against each other, or encourage division, but will be one. This will not be accomplished through the agency of angels, but through men and women in Mt. Sterling and other places who are willing to please, not themselves, but the Christ.

ADVOCATE PUB. CO.

"Hello, Bill—Dog gone your trifling hide, I thought you was dead."

These words were spoken in a loud and boisterous tone by a well dressed farmer, 55 years old, who lives 1 1/2 miles from Chilesburg, in Fayette county, as he entered the C. & O. passenger train on Saturday morning enroute to Lexington. All the ladies in the coach and at least one man looked around, evidently surprised. Further conversation overheard revealed the fact that since they had met Bill's friend had raised a "big family"—three. He was strictly sober, and was glad to see Bill.

SAW SIGHTS.

Bedraggled by mud and rain and worn out by a four-hour delay as the result of breakdowns on the way from Lexington in their two big touring cars, Congressman Nicholas Longworth, his wife, and their party arrived at Louisville at 10 o'clock Sunday night.

They spent Sunday forenoon visiting stout farms near Lexington, stopped to dine with Mr. Landen, president of Kentucky facing Association, at Versailles were delayed by punctured tires, mud and rain. We presume President Roosevelt's daughter and party are well pleased with this way of spending the Lord's day. So doubt many true Kentuckians could have been gratified to know that she preferred to spend at least part of the Lord's day at church.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK.

We give the summary of chief points in the Court of Appeals decision in the County Unit Bill. The decision by the Court is very explicit and comprehensive in the questions involved, but must not be regarded as an expression of the court's ideas on temperance. Their duty was to show whether the bill conforms to the Constitution.

The most zealous advocates of temperance have no cause for dissatisfaction with the decision, or with the remarkable growth of temperance sentiment and conviction in Kentucky. An irresistible tide has been and is sweeping the country; consciences are being stirred; politicians heretofore in different or antagonistic, are now climbing on the band wagon, realizing that "self preservation is the first law of nature." The darkness is disappearing, the day of Kentucky's redemption and exaltation is at hand.

Again we plead for higher citizenship, and happier homes, by suppression of the liquor traffic. Let us look to the next Legislature for further legislation.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Citizens of Mt. Sterling, interested, met at Trimble's Hall last Wednesday evening to consider the question of organizing a stock company to purchase a location and put up school buildings. J. W. Hedden was made chairman and Hoffman Wood secretary.

Speeches were made by J. G. Trimble, Sr., Revs. H. G. Turner, H. D. Clark, and T. Benton Hill, Prof. W. H. Cord, Hoffman Wood, C. D. Grubbs and others, favoring the proposition of a school building. A committee on location, consisting of J. G. Trimble, Sr., W. A. Sutton and John L. McCormick; also one on proposition, consisting of Rev. T. Benton Hill, Prof. W. H. Cord, John G. Winn, John C. Wood and Rev. H. D. Clark were appointed with directions to report at a meeting to be held at the Court House tomorrow, Thursday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

This move on the part of our citizens to invest in a school building which, with a faculty of our best educators, would draw boys and girls to our city who would become boarders in our halls, distributing a large sum of money annually is commendable. Paramount is the educational sentiment and the moral effects of a college.

Let every citizen interested in his or her business, men and women, attend the meeting Thursday evening at the Court House.

VICTORY.

The Court of Appeals of Kentucky having decided the County Unit Bill favorably, the temperance people, in order to drive the saloons from Kentucky, need only to be wise in their presentation of the issue. The first movement now is a perfect organization with level headed leaders. The Anti-Saloon League of Kentucky is a strong organization, with M. B. Adams, a level headed, courageous man, at the head. He says temperance people have all they have asked for and that which is most needed now are leaders who may direct the forces. The Democratic party, aided by the present administration have secured to the temperance people a strong equipment by which they go forth to battle with and subdue the liquor traffic.

Sunday Papers Barred.

Twenty thousand American papers hitherto sold freely in Canada on Sunday are absolutely barred on that day, and Canada itself does not issue a Sunday paper. It is illegal even for express companies to bring these papers into Canada on Sunday. The legislation prohibiting the sale of newspapers throughout the Dominion on Sunday was passed at last year's parliamentary session, and the penalty for violation is a fine of $250, or two months in jail. The papers have always been obtainable on trains, at stations and at hotels and bookstalls. A meeting of those interested in the sale was held. The legal advice was that no loophole existed by which the papers could be paid for in advance or on Monday and given or delivered in rooms or at the houses of customers on Sunday.

This fact, as announced above, will be a surprise to many thousands of Americans, and is worthy of some observation. The writer is heartily in sympathy with the sentiment expressed and would be pleased to know that the day will come when there will not be a Sunday newspaper printed or read on Sunday in Kentucky or the United States.

In accord with this sentiment he has a few years ago—practically sidetracked the Sunday paper, and now thinks that, whatever expansions or changed conditions may come to him as an editor, he will never publish a paper on the Lord's day. He does not presume to dictate to other editors what they shall do, but would persuade them. His conception of christian citizenship is such that he must discourage the now very popular custom of printing and reading Sunday newspapers. This restriction is especially applicable to men and women who recognize the supremacy and authority of God and Christ. A fuller expression of his views will be given from time to time. While thus engaged he will be pleased to have the opinions of others. If his wish could prevail the publication and sale of newspapers on the Lord's day would cease in Mt. Sterling and all other towns and cities.

He presents this matter for serious consideration by the Kentucky Press Association, of which he is a member.

On Which Mt. Sterling Presbyterian Churches Unite.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., May 1, '07.
Pursuant to call the congregation of the Southern Presbyterian Church met at its Church building at 10 o'clock, a. m., this date, Rev. J. B. Meacham being elected Moderator and John L. Coleman, Secretary.

Opening prayer by the Moderator.

There were present about thirty members of the congregation but as the members of the Session stated they had talked with several members not present relative to the matter to be considered and that these members stated they could not be present but favored the proposition, it was decided to take up the subject at once.

Dr. J. Addison Smith, of Richmond, was present and after reading the paper with reference to uniting the First Presbyterian Church and the Southern Presbyterian Church of this city, explained the paper by sections, said paper being as follows:

Believing it to be for the glory of our common Lord, the best interest of His Kingdom and our Historic Presbyterianism that the two Presbyterian Churches of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, be united, we the Elders of the Southern Presbyterian Church beg to submit the following basis of union, the Church we represent agreeing thereto:

1. That both Pastors resign.
2. That the United Church be connected with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church United States of America.

3. That in order for this, the Southern Church deed all its property to the trustees of Ebenezer Presbytery in connection with the above Assembly.

4. That the United Church use the Southern Church building for its place of permanent worship.

5. That when this basis of Union is accepted by the Session of the First Presbyterian Church and then ratified by each congregation entering into this compact, proper legal steps shall be taken for the transfer of the property of the Southern Church as herein stated above.

6. That the Officers, both Elders and Deacons, of the two Churches entering into this compact be the Officers of the United Church, with any others that the Church shall deem wise to elect.

7. That the United Church choose its Pastor from either Assembly as it deems wise and for the best interest of Christ's Kingdom.

8. That for the present, Mr. L. T. Chiles be the Superintendent of the United Sabbath School and Mr. John R. Sharp Vice Superintendent.

9. That the financial obligation of each Church to its Pastor be adjusted before his resignation is accepted for the consummation of this Union.

10. That upon the ratification of this basis of Union by the two congregations the United Church begin its worship together, the Yesterday - To-Day!

"THE TIMES CALL FOR BETTER CLOTHES."

WE could no more sell to-day the Clothing of the past than you could turn back to the stage coach for travel. Modern methods and progress that is teeming about you calls for all things better for the comfort and appearance of man. The store of yesterday is a thing of the past, and it is well. The old clothes, the old stores were good enough in their time, but the time has gone and forever.

As modern merchants should, we have gone ahead of the others in the race for patronage, not only collecting, after years of constant study and experience, the best in

Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings

For men and boys, but we have added every possible comfort and convenience to our store for our patrons that shopping may be made a pleasure as well as a business proposition.

These things we believe, and others know, but you will never be in a position to say unless some time you call and see the goods we sell and the fairness of our methods.

We all must wear clothes—even the boys—and we can wear good ones at little prices if we know where to buy. There is a place in the heart of the city—try it.

After thorough consideration the congregation by unanimous vote ratified the action of its Session.

The following paper from the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church was then presented and read to the congregation of the Southern Presbyterian Church:

Resolved, that we the members of the First Presbyterian Church, Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, do accept and ratify the proposition and agreement entered into by the Sessions of the First Presbyterian and Southern Churches with all of its conditions and requirements.

This proposition and agreement being of date April 30, 1907, and congregational meeting held at 10 o'clock, a. m., May 1, 1907, and that such union be considered effective from date of the ratification of the action of the Southern Presbyterian Church by West Lexington Presbytery United States, but the services of the two Churches shall be held jointly from the date of this meeting, and so continue until the ratification above voted. Signed, vs.

Mary A. McDaniel, Ac., Defendant.

Notice of Sale in Equity.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Montgomery Circuit Court, rendered at the April Term, 1907, in the above cause, the undersigned will, on the 20th Day of May, 1907.

At 10 o'clock in the afternoon, being Court day, proceed to offer for sale at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, on credit of $100 and up, the land enclosed here, in the city of Mt. Sterling, Ky., the property mentioned in the judgment, to-wit:

About forty-five acres of land, more or less, situated in Montgomery County, Ky., and known as to E. H. Robinson and sold to J. W. Evans, on the east by the land owned by E. H. Robinson and J. C. McDaniel, on the west by the land owned by J. H. Decker, and on the south by the land owned by Mary A. McDaniel.

The purchaser will be required to give bond, with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money to have the force and effect of a paper in bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale, according to law. Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms. A lien will be retained on the land until all the purchase money is paid. Bond payable to John A. Joplin, Master Commissioner.

Are Patent Medicines Frauds?

We are often asked the above question, and our answer has invariably been that no medicine that gives satisfactory results could be fraudulent. We could not afford to sell fraudulent medicines. Our business depends on pleased customers—in fact any business does. Therefore, we would take an enormous risk did we not fulfill every promise made our customers. We are very careful of what we guarantee, and when we do guarantee an article we must know it pretty well—what it contains and how it is made. We have in mind the Rexall line of remedies, particularly Rexall Muc-Tone, of which we are selling large quantities at this time of the year. Muc-Tone is an article that we can recommend over our counter and know that ninety-eight per cent. of its purchasers are going to be benefited and will return to our store pleased customers. Muc-Tone is a positive cure for internal scrofula or what is commonly called Catarrh. It is without a doubt the best of all tonics for any one who is suffering from a run-down condition, can't work, feels constantly tired or suffering from the more plainly described symptoms of Catarrh—such as stopping of the nose, cold in the head or bad cough.

It must be remembered that Catarrh is not confined to the nose and throat. It usually starts there, but it leads more often to serious trouble, particularly the wasting of tissues, as in the case of little Miss Dillon, of Albany.

Here is a letter from her father: "My little girl had catarrh so badly that the disease had begun to eat into the cartilage of the nose. Snuffs and instruments failed to do more than give temporary relief. I saw the advertisements of Rexall Muc-Tone, but I could not believe that anything taken in the stomach could cure the sore membrane of the nose. However, I took advantage of your free trial offer and my girl began taking your remedy according to directions. I want to say right here that Muc-Tone is certainly the greatest medical discovery of the times, and to thank you for the liberal offer that first induced me to give it a trial. Muc-Tone has cured my daughter's catarrh completely. The discharge has stopped altogether, and her breath is as sweet as can be. Again thanking you, MATT DILLON, 24 N. Swan St., Albany, N. Y."

We are selling a large trial bottle of Muc-Tone for fifty cents on the famous Rexall guarantee of your money back if you are not satisfied. We promise that one bottle will put flesh on your bones and bring new vitality to your system.

Unique Alarm Clock.

"I've got the best alarm clock in the business, and Uncle Sam provides it for me," said a Brooklyn business man of irregular hours. "Two or three days of each week I have to rise early. Our postman has a remarkably piercing whistle, and also always rings the door bell when he leaves my mail. But although he comes regularly at 7 a. m., he does not always leave mail for me, and consequently his whistle does not always blow and the doorbell ring. So I just buy a post card the afternoon before and mail it to myself. It has never failed to arrive in the early mail, accompanied by the whistle and the bell."

A REASON

The United Drug Company, manufacturers of the Rexall Remedies, for whose preparations we are agent in this city, make 200 remedies, one for each ill. Each one is especially prepared to cure one disease, and that only. This is an age of specialists. You don't contract with a plumber to build your whole house, do you? Why should you contract with one proprietary medicine to cure all your troubles?

Often times you run across a building contractor who has a separate plumbing department, and so on all of which dovetail together and build the house. This is just what the United Drug Company is doing for you in the medicine line. They have cut down profits; they manufacture their own remedies for over 2000 retail druggists. These druggists are the only intermediate profit that stand between the United Drug Company and the patient.

Could the United Drug Company, of which we are a member, afford to make one poor medicine in this line? Does not common sense tell you that one poor medicine would ruin the sale of the other 199 preparations? If you bought a Rexall preparation and it didn't do for you what we claim it will, would you buy another one of our articles? We believe not. Therefore each preparation must be good. It is good. We know the formulas of these Rexall preparations. We give in them so implicitly that we have back of them our own guarantee to refund your money if they do not benefit you.

MAGAZINE FOR BLIND.

First Issue From Louisville Printing House.

In all the field of magazine publications the most unique is the Matilda Ziegler Magazine for the Blind, the first number of which was turned out by the American Printing House for the Blind in Louisville. It is the first magazine ever published for the blind. The publication is made possible by an endowment of half a million dollars from Mrs. Matilda Ziegler, widow of William Ziegler, who fitted out several of the recent polar expeditions. Mr. Ziegler was blind himself.

Mrs. Ziegler has incorporated the Ziegler Printing Company for the Blind in New York, but the company was not ready for work, and, inasmuch as she was anxious to get the publication out, she arranged with the printing house for the blind in Louisville to publish the first issue.

The issue consisted of 4,500 copies, each copy of fifty pages, 12x14 1/2 inches and each volume an inch and a half thick. In all there were 225,000 embossed pages. It was the largest job of work for the blind ever attempted.

The Magazine contains Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, which is a serial; the story of the Ziegler polar expeditions and miscellaneous matter. A map of Jamaica and an American flag are given as illustrations.

The magazine will be furnished all blind readers in this country for ten cents a year and can be secured by writing to W. G. Holmes, 1931 Broadway, New York.

CROSS EXAMINE yourself. Does the house need painting and are you tempted to use the "just as good" variety to save a dollar or two? Thomas Kennedy.

As well try to regulate a rattlesnake by holding it by the tail as to permit and then attempt to regulate saloons. The way to regulate saloons is to kill it, smash its head; its tail may live until sundown, but it cannot bite. The way to regulate the liquor business is to kill its head, the licensed grog shop, the school of vice, crime and political corruption. Its tail may live in cellars and dark places during twilight of ignorance and superstition, but when its head is destroyed it is powerless to resist—no bulldozers or broad assassins.

Ich! Ich! Ich!—Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Doan's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it. 42-5f

JUSTICE FOR DR. PIERCE

A RETRACTION

From July Number "Ladies' Home Journal."

IN THE May number of THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL we published, in the article entitled "The 'Patent-Medicine' Cure," an analysis of "Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription," in which that preparation was represented as containing, among other ingredients, tincture of digitalis, tincture of opium, and alcohol. Immediately upon publication of the number a suit for damages was instituted by The R. V. Pierce Medical Company, of Buffalo, New York, proprietors of the preparation in question, against The Curtis Publishing Co., based upon the claim that none of the three ingredients was contained in the medicine.

Upon the filing of the suit, we, of course, immediately withdrew the published analysis. It appears that this particular analysis had been made, if made at all, fully twenty-five years ago. We, therefore, employed three leading chemists in different cities to make an analysis of the preparation from bottles bought in the open market. These analyses, one and all, now show to us conclusively that in a single one of the ingredients mentioned by us in the analysis is to be found—tincture of digitalis, tincture of opium, and alcohol—was contained in this Company and the writer—personally visited The R. V. Pierce Medical Company, at Buffalo, and were there convinced that the officers of the Company were absolutely truthful in their claim that not one of these injurious ingredients was contained in "Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription." Naturally, since the analysis we printed has been proved erroneous, the deductions made in connection with this preparation were unwarranted and unfounded.

Under these circumstances it is now perfectly plain to us that this magazine was unintentionally, but nevertheless absolutely misled in making the original statement, and we hereby, of our own volition, make this unqualified acknowledgment of our mistake to The R. V. Pierce Medical Company and to our readers.

For more than a third of a century Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has enjoyed a high reputation as a remedy for chronic ailments incident to women, consequently there is little wonder that Dr. Pierce has brought a heavy damage suit against the Ladies' Home Journal because of the large financial loss suffered by him through the original libel.

Where Do You Stand?

In a very clear and logical editorial the editor of the Log Cabin, Cynthia, Ky., shows that the citizens of his city can no longer claim that they are not responsible for the continuation of the saloons and its evil results if the wets carry the coming election in that city. Those who vote on that side are responsible equally with the saloon keeper for all the evils resulting from the sale of liquor. That is very true and certainly ought to make every respectable citizen think seriously before casting his vote on the side of the saloon. But this is nothing new. The party and voters who have licensed and supported this institution all these years have been responsible and will have to answer before the bar of God for the results of that business. It is worse than foolishness for any man to claim he had no responsibility in it as long as he voted for and with the party which perpetuated the iniquity. There are going to be some fearful reckonings in the day of final accounts. Some very pious church men will stand right by the side of some saloon keepers in the responsibility for the drink evil. —Kentucky Issue.

It was decided by Judge Buzz at Mayfield that the State Board of Health has no authority to revoke the license of a practicing physician until that physician has been convicted in some competent court.

The business that has to have thrown about it all the restraints and protections of the law is a business that is not respectable enough to exist unrestrained in a civilized community.—Ex.

Refugees arriving at Messina say the Stromboli volcano is in active eruption. The detonations are said to be deafening and the lava is causing great destruction.

Because of the immoral character and influence of lotteries there could be no vested rights in them. On this same footing must the liquor traffic be placed.—Ex.

FLUE CURING IMPROVES TOBACCO LIKE ROASTING IMPROVES GREEN COFFEE

Flue Curing Develops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste Found in Schnapps that Satisfies Tobacco Hunger

There are three ways used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely, sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured. In flue-curing the tobacco is taken from the field and suspended over intensely hot flues in houses especially built to retain the heat, and there kept in the proper temperature until this curing process develops in the tobacco the stimulating taste and fragrant aroma found in Schnapps tobacco, just as green coffee is made fragrant and stimulating by the roasting process. Only choice selections of this ripe, juicy flue cured leaf, grown in the famous Piedmont country, where the best tobacco grows, are used in Schnapps and other Reynolds' brands of high grade, flue cured tobaccos.

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps; the outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco; one chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco.

Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other kind, and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers. If the kind of tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy, more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco.

Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

"Prohibition Won't Prohibit."

But some one says, "Prohibition won't prohibit." Of course it won't. Neither will an ax cut. It takes a man behind an ax to make an ax cut, and it takes a man behind a law to make it work. An ax will not chop wood of itself, neither will a law enforce itself.

Let me illustrate. When I first got married, I used to chop my own wood. One day when there was no wood, I went to the cook house. Mrs. Miller came to me and said: "My dear, the wood is out, please go and cut some." I said I would, but for some reason I failed to do it; like the man in the Scripture, I said I would go but went not. But Mrs. Miller did not go out to the wood-yard and sold the ax because there was no wood, but she came to my study and sulked something else! If your prohibition ax does not cut, don't blame the ax, but blame your officers who refuse to obey their oaths of office. If you get high license, these same officers would not enforce it any better. If your law is not enforced, it is not so much a change of your law as a change of your officers, that you need. MUST CONVEY LIQUOR.

Decision By Appellate Court In Case of Saloonist With Unexpired License.

In an opinion handed down at Friday's session of the Appellate Court it is held that the act of 1906, prohibiting any person or corporation, public or private carrier, from carrying liquor into any county, district, precinct or city where the sale of liquor has been prohibited under the local option laws, is valid but is not designed to prohibit the carrier delivering the liquor in a local option district to a person who is not prohibited from selling it. In other words, where a person has a license to sell liquor to a certain date which is beyond the date upon which the sale is prohibited under the local option laws, that person can require the common carrier to transport liquors to him until expiration of his license to sell in such community.

The opinion of the court was written by Judge Hobson in a case on appeal from the Kenton Circuit Court, and reverses judgment of the lower court. The case was that of A. J. Sheehan against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. In the action a mandamus was sought by Sheehan against the railroad company to require it to carry for him from Covington to Falmouth, Pendleton county, where he conducted a saloon, a certain quantity of beer. The railroad company had refused to accept the shipment, and he asked a mandatory injunction. The defendant demurred to the petition, and the court below sustained the demurrer, and Sheehan appealed.

The court, Judge Lassing writing the opinion, affirmed judgment of the Ballard Circuit Court in a case of the Commonwealth against the Illinois Central Railroad Company. The company was indicted jointly with the American Express Company for shipping liquor from Cairo, Ill., to the town of Barlow, in Ballard county. The court below sustained a demurrer to the indictment and dismissed it, the showing being that the whiskey was not shipped C. O. D. to the consignee, but was interstate commerce, and not subject to the prohibition laws in force in Ballard county.

CONSTITUTIONAL.

County Unit Bill Is Approved By Court of Appeals.

OPINION BY JUDGE O'REAR.

The Court of Appeals on Friday, Chief Justice O'Rear writing, upheld the constitutionality of the county unit local option act of the General Assembly, session of 1906, making the county the unit in local option elections.

HENRY COUNTY REVERSED.

The opinion of the court was announced in the consolidated cases of Board of Trustees, Town of New Castle against J. T. Scott, from the Henry Circuit Court, and from G. M. Gentry against J. F. Peyton and others, from the Lincoln Circuit Court. The court reverses the Henry court judgment and affirms the Lincoln Court. The Henry Circuit Court held the act to be unconstitutional, or to that effect, and the Lincoln Court held to the contrary.

The decision of the Henry Circuit Court was rendered by Judge R. F. Peak; that of the Lincoln Circuit Court by Judge W. C. Bell.

DECISION OF THE COURT.

The Court says: At the time the Constitution was adopted prohibition prevailed in a number of counties and towns of the State by virtue of special laws previously enacted by the Legislature. Section 61 of the Constitution, which required the Legislature to provide by general law for local option elections, was careful to say that the previous special statutes for certain localities were not repealed by that section. All those special statutes provided prohibition in the localities specified.

The purpose of the convention is shown by this action to have been not inimicable to local prohibition, but rather in its favor.

CONSTRUCTION OF LAW.

Our construction is, in view of these conditions and the language

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This cures constipation. Following medicines are then absorbed into the blood, instead of being removed from the body during its natural process. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills, liver pills. All vegetable.

used, that the Constitution meant that the local units named should control within their own territory the question of prohibition; that each should have the privilege of saying exclusively that prohibition should prevail, but not conclusively that it should not. This construction harmonizes the section so as to allow all of it to stand, and to give equal force and power to each unit named.

HOW LAW OPERATES.

If a precinct votes that prohibition shall prevail within its territory, it is not competent for any other unit to gainsay the matter. If, however, the precinct votes against prohibition, that leaves the question so far as it is concerned as it was before any vote was ever taken on it. But if the town or city which includes the precinct in question subsequently votes in favor of prohibition, the whole town or city thereby comes dry, the same result as to the county is attained.

WHEN PRECINCT CONTROLS.

But if the county or town vote wet and the precinct has previously voted dry, the precinct controls for itself. Thus each unit for itself has the option of putting the prohibition law into effect within its territory. And no larger or smaller unit can prevent it. This is the only construction of the section that occurs to us or that has been pointed out that will allow equal and uncontrolled power to every one of the five units named in this section.

A fair construction of all opinions in connection with Section 61 of the Constitution is that the Constitution meant to leave, and did leave, to the Legislature the details of the law to be enacted to carry the provision of the Constitution into effect. In view of the changing conditions of the future, the wisdom of the Legislature could best determine when the conditions arose as to how often and in what rotation votes in the respective localities might be taken on the subject. It was therefore competent for the Legislature to provide by general law for repealing or modifying the existing local laws continued in force by the Constitution, and to allow it to be done by the vote of such locality as the Legislature saw proper. The reason no subsequent election in any other unit could change the result in the given unit was that the statute withheld such effect. Nor are we now departing from anything actually decided in any previous case before this court.

POWER TO DISCRIMINATE.

The Legislature has now for the first time enacted a law in which it does give a controlling vote to a locality—to each of the units named—in the event it votes for prohibition, over other units mentioned, which may not have voted, or may have voted previously against prohibition. The question is now raised and presented for decision for the first time, whether under Section 61 of the Constitution it has the power to make such discrimination. We answer that it has. It has it because it is not denied to it by the Constitution, but, on the contrary, as there must otherwise be a conflict between some of the units under certain conditions, it is by implication vested in the Legislature to declare in such event which shall prevail.

WOODFORD CASES AFFIRMED.

The court affirmed judgments of the Woodford Circuit Court in local option cases of O'Neal vs. Minary, O'Neal vs. Wilhoit and same vs. Gray. Judge Holson delivered this opinion.

Those favoring the sale of liquor in Versailles fought, after holding the local option election in the whole county of Woodford, which went dry, to have two precincts in the town, which went wet, so declared. The court below dismissed the petition. The court here, in affirming, says a city of the first four classes is entitled to vote on the same day as the county if the necessary petition is filed and the County Judge in the discharge of his duty should in this, as in all other matters, exercise his discretion to prevent an advantage being taken and secure justice. But he was not asked to do this. "As no appeal lies from his order directing other elections to be held," says the court, "we cannot review it, and as the County Judge has a discretion in fixing the day for an election he cannot be controlled by mandamus as to what day he shall fix."

The Weather.

The weather has been unusually unfavorable for all classes of retail trade. The records of the weather bureau show that April was the coldest in twenty-six years. This had the effect of greatly decreasing the volume of purchases of spring goods that would otherwise have made a record-breaking April. The weather also makes crops backward and naturally surrounds the crop situation with a degree of uncertainty. Thus far in May the conditions are not improved. On Sunday morning frost appeared and heavy rain later, with continued cloudiness, delaying garden and farm work.

Long and Successful Pastorate of a Great Man.

Sunday was Dr. T. T. Eaton's twenty-sixth anniversary as pastor of Walnut-street Baptist church, now at Third and St. Catherine streets, Louisville. He spoke to a large congregation on "Faith and Works," and told of the work of the church. During the past year there were 165 persons joined this church and the present membership is 1,528. During twenty-six years 5,328 persons have joined. There were 573 members in May, 1881, and these have increased, counting the colonies sent out from this church, to a present membership of 3,620.

During the year this church contributed $13,675.83. During the twenty-six years they contributed $897,792.55. All departments of the church are flourishing, Dr. Eaton said. There were twenty-five present Sunday morning who were present on the first Sunday in May, 1881. During the year there were fifteen deaths, all but one within the last six months, and four of them in April.—Courier-Journal.

DEATHS.

EWING.—Col. Henry Ewing, of Bath county, aged over 70 years, died on Saturday night and was buried at Owingsville on Monday. He was paralyzed two weeks ago. He had never married.

DIEM.—Frederick John Diem, of the great paper company, of Cincinnati, died on Tuesday, April 30th, and was buried on the following Thursday in the cemetery at Cincinnati. Deceased had been doing business with our people for the past 29 years, and by this relation his demise becomes a local event. Mr. Diem was born in Wales in 1844, was on a farm near Palomouth until ten years old, when he removed to Cincinnati. In early manhood he was a grocer and in 1878 he became a dealer in paper, and at the time of his death was furnishing stock for the State of Kentucky through the contractor, Mr. J. B. Elaco. He was a correct business man, faithful to his church duties and a prominent Mason. His funeral service was attended at his late home by possibly 1,000 persons, the great majority of whom were near his age. Floral contributions were elaborate and the finest we have ever witnessed, possibly $15,000 in money value. The funeral oration was in German. The choruses were made voices of his own tongue and were really inspiring. The most inspiring part of the service was when an eminent Judge, a Mason of high rank in word and thought, begging description, conferred the mantle of the deceased father to that of the son. We shall ever have fond recollections of this good man. He leaves a handsome competency of his own earning to be shared by his two children, Albert Diem and Miss Bertha Mulhauser. Peace to his ashes.

Alabama has just succeeded in securing a complete county option law. In commenting on this the Birmingham News says: "The people do not propose to have their elections controlled by the saloon interests, especially when fraud and corruption are resorted to as a means of victory. The liquor interests may as well reconcile themselves to one of two things: To observe the laws and to stay out of politics as an organization, or else be forced to close their grog shops and go out of business." Sentiment of this kind is fast crystallizing all over the country. When the organ of a bad liquor business attempts to dictate the policy of our legislatures, as they have been doing for years, it is time they received such a rebuke as will send them back to the obscurity deserved by all corruptors. The politics of this country must be purified, and that means that the liquor domination must cease.
